ICM Awarded DAPS Conversion Services Contract

Contract with U.S. Government Printing Office Positions ICM for Growth

PHOENIX, AZ – March 3, 2010 –ICM Document Solutions (ICM) today announced it has been awarded a contract for Document Conversion Services by the United States Government Printing Office for the Defense Automated Printing Service (DAPS). The multiple-awards contract has options of up to five years, and includes the document conversion of paper documents, large format engineering drawings, maps, microfilm, and color documents.

Advanced professional services are also available including indexing, Optical Character Recognition (OCR), and key stroking; as well as PDF, Microsoft® Word, and markup language conversions. Projects will be executed both at ICM's corporate facility in Phoenix, Arizona, and onsite at the DAPS client locations, including military bases around the country. As part of the agreement, ICM will be obtaining a DoD SECRET Military Clearance for both personnel and its facility.

“We are pleased and honored that the United States Government Printing Office (GPO) and DAPS has selected ICM as a supplier in the effort to digitize the vast paperwork managed by the Department of Defense,” said Kevin Smith, ICM President. He added, “This contract will utilize all aspects of our conversion technology, and is a major contract win for ICM. We look forward to a long-term relationship with United States GPO, DAPS, and the DoD in the years ahead.”
